

RESIGNATION OF LEAGUERS TO BE ASKED

Western Delegates Prepared to Ask Liederbach, Levang, Kaldor to Quit Committee

IN SENATORIAL RACE

C. A. Johnson May Be Candidate — Friends of Judge Christianson Reply

The political campaign will get away to a running start in North Dakota tomorrow when the Nonpartisan league town-meeting is held in Fargo. Two hundred and seven delegates will participate in the convention to be held. A. A. Liederbach, state chairman, will call the gathering to order.

What will happen after the start is conjecture. A new element of uncertainty has arisen by reason of A. C. Townley's declaration that he will not push his "balance of power" plan before the convention. There have been reports that Townley would drop any effort to dominate the convention.

One of the first fights expected in the convention, on the floor or off, is from William Lemke, seeking vindication of himself and others who have been subjected to scathing criticism in the Courier-News. Lemke has paved the way by writing a letter in answer to that of P. L. Arrhus, manager of the Courier-News, in which he asserts that the Courier-News is being used as a tool by the Liederbach faction for the purpose of destroying the league.

Preliminaries in Fight.

The announcement of Townley leaves a clear-cut fight for control of the organization between the Liederbach faction and the anti-Liederbach adherents. One of the first demands that will be made, it is known, is a demand that the state committee, or at least the majority of it, composed of Liederbach, Kaldor and Levang, resign and permit the convention to name temporary successors. The three men were elected by the league membership and their terms will not end before the end of the campaign unless they resign.

The selection of a state ticket and the naming of candidates will not come, if at all, before leaguers settle the state committee row and the control of the Courier-News.

No candidates are avowedly in the field seeking league endorsement as yet, unless it is A. J. Gronna, who wants to be United States senator.

In Senatorial Race.

A third definite entrant in the senatorial race has appeared in C. A. Johnson, of Minot. His brother, Dr. J. A. Johnson, formerly a practitioner of Bottineau, is authority for the statement that his brother, C. A. Johnson, will be a candidate. Mr. Johnson was twice a candidate of the republican party for governor, formerly owned the Minot Daily News and was one-time law partner of Governor Nestos. He is now in Florida. His brother says his formal entry will be made soon.

The letter of Ormsby McHarg, in the Fargo Forum, devoted to showing Gronna and McCumber are "unavailable" as candidates and endeavoring to prove Judge Christianson is barred by a constitutional limitation, is taken as a tacit admission that McHarg would not object to himself being named for the honor, another Jamestown man who has had senatorial aspirations or a candidate selected by Fargo men.

Friends of Judge Christianson say that there is no bar to his candidacy, that the constitutional limitation would apply only to a state official and that if he chooses to be a candidate he may do so with legal and moral right.

Townley Statement.

The full statement of A. C. Townley regarding his "balance of power" plan issued yesterday in Minneapolis, follows:

"I have talked to a large number of farmer meetings and individual farmers, and find that where I have full opportunity to explain the 'balance of power' idea and it is understood, there is a practically unanimous sentiment for it. A great many who will be delegates to the Minnesota and North Dakota conventions of the Nonpartisan league understand the plan and are for it. If the conventions desire to take it up for discussion these farmer delegates are in a position to lay the matter before the conventions for intelligent action. I will not urge it at the conventions. I have concluded to take this course for several reasons.

In the first place the 'balance of power' plan can not succeed unless the farmers and workers and their organizations are unanimously back of it. It would have an adverse effect on our campaign if even a small minority was not convinced of its merits and went into the campaign feeling that wrong tactics were being pursued. I do not want the plan adopted under such conditions. I am still convinced that it holds out a better chance for success than any other plan, providing we could have a unanimous agreement upon it. But as that seems impossible without more time than we have for its discussion between now and the conventions, I will not urge the plan further at this time. I am firmly convinced that the farmer-labor political movement will eventually come to its

For Purpose of Discussion.

"What I have said to date, as I announced at the outset, has been merely for the purpose of having my proposal freely and thoroughly discussed by farmers and workers, and I have never had any intention of insisting on the plan should it appear that even a minority of our farmers were opposed to it. Its success requires unanimous consent. What I have said has been everywhere misrepresented and distorted by the opposition to the farmer-labor movement, and the enemy

SCHOOL HEAD CAMPAIGNS TO WIPE OUT ILLITERACY

Mrs. Jennie Erickson Dodge

By MPA Service.

Little Rock, Ark., March 22.—Just now Mrs. Jennie Erickson Dodge, school superintendent for Pulaski county, is conducting a campaign to wipe out illiteracy in her neck of the woods. Since January 1 she has organized 39 schools for adults and secured an enrollment that has passed the 100 mark.

And this is only a small part of the work and general interest she has been concerned in in Pulaski county.

As school official she draws $200 a year, $100 more than the state superintendent of education and as much as the governor of the state.

She is supplied with an auto for visits to rural schools. Recently she was county probation officer and it was largely through her efforts that the month's pension act was passed in Arkansas.

The building and maintenance of the Arkansas Reformatory for Women and Girls are credited to her efforts. She made a personal trip to Washington where she secured the support of President Wilson and secured an appropriation of $200,000 for this work.

Mrs. Dodge began her career as a school teacher with three children to support.

ILLITERACY IS ENDED AT PRISON; MANY CONVICTS ENGAGED IN STUDY

Penitentiary Believed To Be Only One in Country in Which There Is Not Now a Single Illiterate — Forty-three Convicts Are Attending Classes

North Dakota has a new record, the only state in the union which does not have an illiterate in her penitentiary.

There were a number of men who could not read and write in the penitentiary a few months ago. Today there is not one, Warden L. L. Stair said today.

The school for illiterates was opened at the penitentiary following the visit of Cora Wilson Stewart, founder of moonlight schools in Kentucky to the state. Co-operating with those in North Dakota, seeking to end illiteracy, Warden Stair established classes. Within a short space of time every one who could not read or write has now learned the elements of literacy.

The schools have averaged about 42 men, with six inmates in charge of the classes, under the general supervision of Beecher Stair. The men in the classes vary in age from 24 to 72 years. A few of these men could read a little and sign their own names, but most of them could not. At present ninety per cent of them are reading the newspapers and many are writing letters to friends and relatives.

"The results of the school work conclusively proves that there is no excuse for illiteracy if the individual has any ambition at all," says Warden Stair.

Many convicts of the penitentiary are preparing for some useful occupation when they get out of prison. A few are taking correspondence school courses in technical subjects. One prisoner studied accountancy.

The classes are graded and have a student number as follows: Illiterates and primers 16; second grade 6; fourth grade 5; sixth grade 6; bookkeeping 6; eighth grade 4; total 43.

The bookkeeping class is made up of men who have studied the elements of bookkeeping and have taken a great interest in the work.

The other classes made reviews of common school subjects which they had forgotten, and much time has been given to spelling and writing. The Palmer system of writing has been taught with the use of Palmer writing manuals.

School is held each Tuesday and Friday evening and Sunday forenoon. The interest shown this year by the inmates indicates, officials say, that they realize that an education is absolutely essential to progress.

MAKE ATTEMPT ON ENVOY'S LIFE

Paris, March 22.—An attempt was made to assassinate Mr. Chen-Lu Chi, Chinese minister to France. Four shots were fired at him by a Chinese youth, none of which took effect.

The minister's assailant, who surrendered shortly after the shooting, is a student. He was disgruntled over the attitude of the minister toward the Chinese in Paris which he complained of as unkind.

FINED $10.

Frank Funk, brought from Jamestown to appear in federal court yesterday, pleaded guilty and his case was quickly disposed of, he being fined $10. It was for violation of the Volstead act.

ERIN REPUBLIC ARMY WILL DEFY GRIFFITH ORDER

Convention Will Be Held In Dublin Sunday. Organ Officially Announces

BORDER SITUATION BAD

Feared Trifling Incident May Lead to Conflict That Will Shatter Peace

Dublin, March 22.—(By the Associated Press.)—It was officially announced in the republican organ here that the Irish republican army convention, holding of which was recently forbidden by Arthur Griffith, president of the Dail Eireann, would be held in Dublin Sunday as arranged. The announcement is taken here to mean that a definite split in the republican army has come.

According to Commandant Roderick O'Connor, of the Irish republican army, 80 per cent of the army members believe that the Dail Eireann has been false to the republican oath, by agreeing to accept inclusion with the British empire.

SITUATION TENSE.

London, March 22.—(By the Associated Press.)—The situation on the border between Ulster and southern Ireland is going from bad to worse and it is feared some trifling incident may draw the rival forces into a conflict that will shatter all prospects of peace in Ireland, says the correspondent of The Times.

The Orangemen in the north resent presence there of organized forces of the Irish republican army while the Catholics of the south claim the right to protect their own in Ulster and declare they cannot be end on northern police to do so.

"The tragic irony of the situation," he adds, "consists in the fact that the vast majority of Irishmen of all parties deplore the danger but seem unable to avert it. Each side daily takes some measure of defense which it regards as legitimate but which brings prompt retaliation from the other side."

MAY SEND TROOPS.

London, March 22.—(By the Associated Press.)—A British government may have to consider whether it may be possible to draw a cordon of imperial troops between the warring elements on the Ulster frontier, Winston Churchill, colonial secretary, stated in the house of commons today.

CLAIM RICKARD TRIED TO SHUT OFF GIRL'S STORY

New York, March 22.—Resuming her testimony before a supreme court jury trying Tex Rickard for criminal assault, 15-year-old Sarah Schoenfeld declared that three days after his arrest the sports promoter took her for a ride in a school girl chum, for an automobile ride through Central Park and told her to say "another man did it" if they got caught. Rickard was under arrest at the time for assaulting Alice Rusk, 15.

"Isn't it too bad," Sarah quoted Rickard as saying, "that Alice has had to tell lies about me?"

Continuing, the girl said: "He said we mustn't tell on him because if we did we would be locked up until we were 18 years old, and we could not visit our friends and have any more good times."

WOOD IN SUIT FOR BANK STOCK

Declares Scandinavian-American Bank Was Insolvent in 1919

Fargo, Mar. 22.—Frank B. Wood, member of the executive committee of the National Nonpartisan league, says the Scandinavian-American bank was insolvent at the time it was closed in October, 1919.

Mr. Wood also declares that the application that was made to the state banking board for the increase of the capital stock of the bank in January, 1920, was based on a false and fraudulent premise.

These contentions on the part of Mr. Wood are set forth in the suit he has just filed as trustee for the purchasers of $49,330 worth of stock in the bank against Ole L. Engen, receiver, demanding the return to him self, as trustee, of the notes given in payment of the stock in question.

Mr. Wood several months ago made a demand for the return of the notes, which was rejected by Mr. Engen.

DES LACS WILL BE RULED BY WOMEN OF TOWN

Minot, N. D., March 22.—The village of DesLacs stepped into a unique place in the state and the country yesterday when it elected a complete set of village officials, choosing only from the married women of the town. The women were elected on the platform of the Women's Booster club, a "bigger, better and cleaner DesLacs." The officers elected included justice of the peace, marshal, clerk, treasurer, assessor, two trustees and chairman.

ORATORY FLOOD IN SENATE ON 4-POWER PACT

Solons Rush to Get Prepared Speeches in Record Before Amendment Vote

LA FOLLETTE ASSAILS IT

Charges That it is Scheme Which will Aid England and Japan in Exploitation

Washington, March 22.—A flood of prepared speeches for and against the four-power treaty was loosed in the senate today as the period of unlimited debate came to an end, under the unanimous consent agreement which will bring a final ratification vote Friday. The one hour limit on individual speeches was effective at 3:00 p. m. today and several senators had prepared long addresses jostled one another in bidding for recognition in the eleventh hour rush for "canned" oratory. Senators La Follette, Republican, Wisconsin and Walsh, Democrat, Massachusetts, were the headlines today for the treaty opponents, while on the other hand right of way was given to Senator Pomeroy, Democrat, Ohio, a foreign relations committee member and one of the leaders of the element of his party favoring ratification.

Other Are Waiting.

With several others waiting to get in speeches for and against the pact, leaders were waiting for any vote would be reached on any of the amendments or reservations.

The four-power pact arrangement was assailed by Senator La Follette as a scheme of Great Britain and Japan to secure co-operation and protection of the United States in their future schemes of exploitation and imperialism.

He declared it was viewed by both British and Japanese statesmen as merely an extension of the Anglo-Japanese alliance, which it abrogated and that in actual practice it would result in binding the United States, London and Tokyo against such outside powers as China, Russia and Germany.

La Follette Queried.

During S. nat. La Follette's discussion of American rights and duties under the four power pact, Senator Hitchcock, Democrat, Nebraska, inquired who was to determine whether a question of controversy should come within the jurisdiction of the conference of the four nations.

Just how far the railroad commission will go in its supervision over the elevators and grain warehouses has not been determined. Before the supervision was transferred to the grain inspection department created by the state grain grading act the commission assumed authority over the handling, weighing and storing of grain.

It has been decided that bonds given to the grain inspection department and licenses issued, expiring July 1, 1923, will be continued. The accounting department will be given additional room in the Bank of North Dakota building where the railroad commission has its offices. Three or four employees will come to Bismarck.

The inspection department which has been under J. A. McGovern is automatically discontinued through the supreme court decision, the railroad commission holds.

An embarrassing feature in the administration of the law is that the railroad commission will have no appropriation with which to operate its new department. Under the grain grading law fees went into the treasurer's office and the legislature appropriated funds for its operation. There are no funds which can be transferred to the railroad commission.

ALLIES NAME CONDITIONS

Paris, March 22.—(By the Associated Press.)—The conditions under which the reparations commission will grant Germany a partial moratorium were announced today. They include perfect autonomy for the Reichsbank and new legislation to prevent evasion of German capital, the legislation to be ready for application upon a fixed date.

FATHER, SIX SONS, MASONS

Jamestown, N. D., March 22.—Tim Williams and his six sons will receive their third degree in Masonry today.

Five hundred Masons are expected to attend a banquet to be given at night.

COAL OPERATORS ARE DENOUNCED

Washington, March 22.—Bituminous coal operators who see danger to themselves from anti-trust law enforcement if they confer with the miners' union nationally to fix wages are "simply setting up a smoke screen" says a statement issued today by the United Mine Workers.

"They know this is a frivolous excuse but it is the only one they have left," the statement said.

USE DYNAMITE TO SAVE BRIDGE

Fargo, March 22.—In an effort to save the Northern Pacific railroad bridge on the Sheyenne river by an ice jam which today threatens the bridge at Haggart, dynamite was being used this afternoon to tear apart the sheets of ice which are piling atop of each other south of the bridge. Unless efforts to loosen the jam are successful Herbert Hard, state drainage engineer, said there was danger that the bridge would be carried away. Reports from up river are that it is falling.

DAIRY SHOW TO BE DISCUSSED AT CONFERENCE

A number of leading dairy men of the state have been called in to conference in Bismarck March 28 by Governor R. A. Nestos for the purpose of considering the holding of a dairy show in some central part of the state, and in the boosting of the dairy industry in general. W. A. Skinner, of Chicago, who promoted the National Dairy show held in the Twin Cities is expected to be here from Chicago. He has proposed the holding of a North Dakota Dairy show. All who are interested in the welfare of the dairy industry are invited to attend the meeting. It is expected that 40 or 50 of the leading dairy men of the state will be present.

WILL PLAN FOR TWO-PARTY CAMPAIGN AT MEETING TO BE HELD IN FARGO

Fargo, March 22.—The committee of 45 made up of 15 Republicans, 15 Democrats and 15 representatives of the Independent Voters Association will meet at 10 a. m. tomorrow at the Gardner hotel in Fargo.

This committee was created by the action of the three bodies for the purpose of considering the working out of a plan for unified and political action in the coming primary and general election. It is intended to join forces against the possibility of the Nonpartisan league returning to power.

BONUS WILL BE UP THURSDAY

Washington, March 22.—A resolution making tomorrow a special suspension day in the house so as to consider the soldier bonus bill under a suspension of the rules was approved today by the rules committee without a formal record vote.

Chas. R. Campbell of the rules committee said the house would meet at 11 A. M. and there would be an hour of debate on the resolution before the bonus bill is reached. Only a majority vote would be necessary for the adoption of a resolution which provides for a four-hour debate on the bill.

NAVY NUMBER IS AGAIN CUT

Washington, Mar. 22.—The house naval committee agreed today to report a bill fixing a minimum authorized enlisted strength of the navy at 80,000 plus 8,000 apprentices, or 10,000 less than the number Secretary Denby said was needed to operate the fleet.

The navy also provides that not more than 200 members of each graduating class at the navy academy shall be commissioned this year, in 1923 and 1924. There are 541 members of the first class at the academy to be graduated in June.

KAFFER ENTERS SHERIFF RACE

Edward Kaffer, deputy county sheriff, announced today that he would be a candidate for the nomination for sheriff in the primary. Mr. Kaffer has been a resident of Burleigh county for many years. He owns and lived on a farm east of the city until five years ago when he came to Bismarck. He has been deputy under Sheriff Welch.

ROBINSON IN RING AGAIN

Judge Will Seek Reelection On Supreme Bench

Judge J. E. Robinson, in announcing his candidacy for another term to the supreme bench, says: "I have concluded to throw my hat into the ring. At the June Primary I purpose to be a candidate for nomination as Judge of the Supreme Court. I shall not do any campaigning or steal a day from my regular work, because time is money, and the thief of time is much the same as a money thief."

"You know my hobby is legal and economic reforms. If not a reformer, I am nothing. In the state publicity pamphlet, which is mailed to every voter thirty days before the Primary, I purpose to publish a letter pointing to what I have done officially in the past and would do in the future. Six years ago, in the state pamphlet, I made a definite promise to advance certain reforms in the court procedure and to show how to reduce the taxes. That, I have done. At the special session of the legislature in 1919 I addressed a joint session of both houses and secured a reduction of $800,000. Since then I have been a veritable John the Baptist, crying in the wilderness against the oppressive taxes. Now I am trying to induce the citizens to sign and submit at the Primary eleven measures bearing on tax reduction. By reason of the big

The Truth About Paint

Facts you can't get away from.

Facts that demand more serious consideration at this time than ever before.

How foolish it would be to plant poor seed just because it cost less than good seed.

It's not one whit less profitable to use poor paint just because it cost less—per can—than good paint.

Good seed yields you a profit at harvest time. Poor seed may cause you a loss.

Good Paint not only pays you a profit by protecting your buildings and making them last longer, but it even costs less at the start than poor paint, because it takes less of the good paint to do a good painting job.

Publicity Pamphlet Copy Must be in 50 Days Before Primary, He Announces

The last day on which petitions for the people at the June 28 primary on initiated laws, will be received is March 30, Secretary of State Thomas Hall announced today.

Outlining preliminary plans for the primary election the Secretary of State also announced: May 29, or 30 days before the primary is the last day upon which petitions may be filed by candidates.

The time has passed for initiating constitutional amendments. There will be, however, one constitutional amendment voted upon. This was referred by the legislature, and provides that a person removing from one county to another within the time when he may qualify in the new county may vote in the county from which he removed.

Bids for the publicity pamphlet will be received on April 8. All copy to go into the publicity pamphlet—statements by candidates, etc.—must be in his hands 50 days before the election, or by May 9. Copy must be sent to the printer not less than 40 days before election. The law requires the pamphlet to be distributed within 20 days of the election, but the Secretary of State says it is almost an impossibility for printing plants to do this.

A new petition, in opposition to Judge Robinson's tax proposition, is being circulated. The committee named for the petitioners is composed of Ben Orland, Pierce Blewett, John J. Fried, Thomas Pender and Oliver J. Bennett, and the petition is said to embrace views of Judge J. A. Coffey, of Jamestown, who was named as one of Judge Robinson's committee but who declared use of his name was not authorized.

The petition is for an act to cancel penalties and interest on taxes unpaid or years prior to 1921 and to permit counties to redeem from sale for the time years lands going to tax deeds and to permit counties to use certificates of tax sales in their name as basis for loans.

What Act Provides: That all accrued penalties and interest now due and payable on taxes levied on real estate for all years prior to 1921 be cancelled, but this shall not apply to bona fide sales for cash, for the non-payment of taxes for such years.

That the board of county commissioners is authorized to sell for cash any and all real estate taxes levied for the years prior to 1921, subject to provisions of the above section.

Bonds or debentures which the county commissioners may issue shall run for a period of not to exceed five years and shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed 7 per cent.

In cases of sales of land for taxes or the years prior to 1921, to bona fide purchasers for cash, where such purchaser has not demanded a tax deed to the land, the board of county commissioners is empowered to make redemption thereof in the name of the owner of the land out of the general fund and the tax certificate shall be assigned to the county, and the county become the owner.

The state board of equalization shall determine the amount of taxes levied for the year 1921 in excess of the amount actually required and shall on or before October 1, 1922, in case of a surplus fund, certify the act to the various boards of the state together with a pro rata reduction to which each taxpayer is entitled and the various boards of county commissioners are directed to give credit therefor to each taxpayer.

ROAD MARKING PLAN APPROVED BY TOWN CRIERS

Also Plan to Improve Relations With Other Towns in Western North Dakota

The Town Criers club in meeting last night, approved a plan worked out by Theodore Quarnrud for marking roads in the vicinity of Bismarck, and committee will be named to prepare for the work. The plan of the Town Criers is to afford accurate markings to motorists coming to Bismarck on the various roads, lack of which is said to be keenly felt at this time. The committee named for this purpose devoted a great deal of time and study to the work, and the club voiced approval of their report.

The matter of trade tours during the spring closer relations between business men of neighboring cities and towns with Bismarck and other plans promoting the entire welfare of the city and the general welfare of the territory was discussed. It was emphasized by members that Bismarck desires the good will and cooperation of surrounding towns so that all may work toward the general development of this section of the state.

With the coming of spring, the club expects to do a great deal of work in advertising Bismarck and promoting the city's welfare.

PROTEST TRACK TEAR-UP
A protest against tearing up track by the Great Northern Railroad between Portland and Portland Junction, Traill county, as inimical to the interests of a large territory, is made by the state board of railroad commissioners in a brief forwarded to the Interstate Commerce Commission today.

MAY ROBSON'S PLAY WINS ON WESTERN TOUR

"It Pays to Smile," the comedy in which the famous actress, May Robson, will appear in Bismarck tonight at the Auditorium, has been accorded enthusiastic receptions in many cities during the present tour. Butte, Montana, newspapers, where the play appeared a few nights ago, are enthusiastic over it.

The Butte Miner said: "Once more has May Robson proved to Butte that it pays to attend any play in which she is starred. Likewise with the 'superb artistry for which she is justly famous, she proved the value of the motto in the title of 'It Pays to Smile,' in which she and an excellent company delighted an audience at the Broadway last night, the first of her two nights' engagement here.

Of course, Butte knowing Miss Robson well, needs no argument of any sort to concede that in the general manner of character portrayal she has in recent years chosen to present, she is in a class by herself. But once again was it demonstrated here, as it doubtless is everywhere she appears in her theatrical vehicles, that she always has some new capability, some new and charming interpretative treat for those fortunate enough to be able to attend the productions in which she is starred.

Here are a few Suggestions for Boosting Bismarck

Don't be the man who put sit in city.
Building good houses builds a good town.
Good roads lead not only to town, but to money.
Be a live one, and the town will not be a dead one.
Why should the town muzzle dogs and not knackers?
When someone plans to help the town, plan to help the plan.
A good way to make the world better is to begin with the home town.
A town is like a perambulator—it isn't much good unless it is pushed.
Don't spend all your time telling what you could do if you had some time.
Be like a ball player. The thing he is always working for is home.
Be one of the leaders of the town, if you can; but anyway, keep on.
Don't be a grouch. Everybody in this town wishes you well, even the doctor.
Let's not be trying to stop something all the time. Let's start something.
A good town will do more to keep the boys at home than good advice.
A town is like a girl. It's wonderful what a little fixing up will do for her.
The world owes every man a living, but the street corner is a poor collection agency.
Don't spend so much time talking hard times that you haven't time left to talk business.
If you would like to have somebody working for you, put a little money in the bank.
It improves the soup to throw a little pepper into it; same way with a town.

REMEMBER. FORUM LUNCHEON THURSDAY NOON AT GRAND PACIFIC.
ALWAYS BE A BOOSTER.

Boost your city, boost your friend;
Boost the lodge that you attend,
Boost the street on which you're dwelling,
Boost the goods that you are selling,
Boost the people round about you,
They can get along without you,
But success will quicker find them
If they know that you're behind them.

Boost for every forward movement,
Boost for every new improvement,
Boost the man for whom you labor,
Boost the stranger and the neighbor.
Cease to be a chronic knacker;
Cease to be a progress blocker;
If you'd make your city better,
Boost it to the final letter.

TRIBUTE PAID TO MRS. WAGNER

Sterling Community Mourns Passing of Loveable Character

On Wednesday morning, March 15, the people of Sterling were shocked to receive the message that Mrs. H. B. Wagner of that place had passed away at one of the hospitals at Bismarck.

Alma (Durkes) Wagner was born at Dallas Center, Iowa, March 29, 1887, and passed away at Bismarck, March 15, 1922, at the age of 34 years, eleven months and fifteen days.

She lived with her parents in Iowa until June 29, 1910, when she was united in marriage to Horatio B. Wagner, and came to Sterling, N. D., living on the farm for a few years then moving to town for the purpose of educating their children. In early life she became converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal church at Sterling, living a consistent religious life until her death, where she will be sadly missed by all.

She leaves to mourn her loss, the beloved husband, two children, Hazel and Orville (who will make their home for a short time with their grandparents in Iowa), besides her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Durkes, and two sisters, Miss Bertha Durkes of Dallas Center, and Mrs. E. B. Johnson of Des Moines, Iowa. Grandmother Wagner of Sterling, besides several other relatives and friends, her only brother preceding her to the great beyond, Jan. 12, 1918.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon.

Rev. Guy A. Lewis, pastor of the M. E. church at Sterling, preached the funeral sermon, delivering a very able address, taking as his text from the First Epistle of John these words, "God is Love," pressing upon our minds that while we mourn for loved ones, that if we would only place our trust in God, live the exemplary life which our sister did in time we would meet again.

In the passing away of Mrs. Wagner, Sterling has lost a beautiful character, the husband and children have lost a noble wife and mother, the church one of its most faithful workers, and as we stop and think and wonder why it is so, we do not know, but some time, we will understand.

Mrs. John French of Bismarck was in charge of the music, assisted by Miss Lovelock, Mr. George Lewis, with Mrs. H. E. Wildfang of Sterling, at the organ, which was beautifully rendered and appreciated by all.

The floral offerings from the Sunday school, church, community, the family and many friends were simply beautiful, showing the love and esteem in which Mrs. Wagner was held in the community.

The pallbearers were: Mr. M. H. Nelson, Max Lang, P. M. Gosney, W. E. Rawlins, E. L. Hurr and Emil Lang. Among those attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Durkes, father and mother, one sister, Bertha Durkes, from Dallas Center, and Mrs. W. A. Anderson, a cousin from Des Moines, Iowa. And as they go to their homes we wish them to take with them the best we can give as neighbors and friends, our love and sympathy in this their hour of trouble and sorrow.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to hereby express our most sincere thanks to our friends and neighbors for the kindness and thought to us during the sickness and death of our loved one; for the beautiful floral offerings, and to Mrs. John French who so ably conducted the musical service.

MORTON COUNTY CASE ORDERED FOR NEW TRIAL

Cases of 50 Persons Suing For Crop Loss Insurance Affected by Order

JURY ACTION INVOLVED

The supreme court, in a decision handed down late yesterday, reversed and ordered a new trial in the case of Dick Wilkins against the National Union Fire Insurance company, of Pittsburgh, Pa., growing out of alleged loss to crop in Morton county by drouth. Fifty other cases were affected.

District Judge Cooley, who sat in the case, wrote the opinion, holding that the insurance company's contention that the same jurors could not sit successively on cases against it involving the same principle, was sound.

The Wilkins case, which involved claim for damages on account of damage to crops under a policy which was issued by the National Union Fire Insurance company, is similar to a great many other such cases arising from losses alleged to have been sustained by farmers in the western part of the state.

Attorneys for about 50 policy holders filed a statement in the Morton county district court, from which the case came to the supreme court, offering to return to the insurance company all moneys received by policy holders in settlement of their loss, with interest, upon the ground that such settlements and compromise were procured by your agents through fraud, deceit, false representations and undue influence.

The original complaint in the Wilkins case claimed that about June 1, 1917, he insured with the National Union Fire Insurance company of Pittsburgh, Pa., against loss or damage to crops and floods and winter kill, in the amount of $1,617.00, and that he paid a premium of $161.70. The policy was executed upon crops in Morton county.

Alleged Partial Failure.

Thereafter, Wilkins alleged, there was a partial failure caused by hail, drouth, dry weather and hot winds, and declared insurance was due because of this damage to his crops. He alleged that in October, 1917, an adjuster of the company represented that the company was in financial straits, unable to pay the loss and persuaded Wilkins to accept the amount of his premium in return.

The answer of the insurance company alleged that the policy was avoided because of misrepresentation to the effect that his crops were in good condition, whereas at the time of the making of the application the crops were materially damaged by drouth, and other causes, and that upon learning of this alleged misrepresentation the insurance company denied liability under the policy but offered to pay the plaintiff the premium on it, and the offer was accepted. It denied misrepresentation or fraud by its adjuster.

In district court Wilkins got a judgment for $644.73. He had asked $813, minus the returned amount of the premium of $161.70. Judge Lemke presided at the trial.

Among the allegations made in the appeal was that there were about 40 such cases in the district court, that after the first case was tried, many jurors who had on that case were called in subsequent cases, some jurors sitting in six or eight cases, all substantially the same.

ESSEX OUSTS LOCOMOTIVE

New Coach a Big Success in Long Trip Over Railroad Tracks; Officials Pleased

A most remarkable and unusual performance was recently made by a standard 1922 Essex coach, which, mounted on flanged railroad wheels, recently made a flying round trip of inspection from Los Angeles, Calif., to Phoenix, Ariz., 1,349.2 miles over the Santa Fe Railroad tracks in 35 hours and 10 minutes actual running time at an average speed of 38.4 miles an hour.

The coach came through the grueling trip in perfect shape and experienced no difficulty whatsoever during any part of the long test, say railroad officers, who rode in the coach. It conquered at high speed the grades which mark the Santa Fe route through the numerous mountains encountered. Hudson Essex officials and railroad officers, as well, are exceptionally well pleased with the Essex performance.

The speedy Essex maintained a regular schedule throughout the trip.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, yellow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit. 15c and 30c.

ALICE BRADY A MOTHER AFTER DIVORCE

A son has been born to Alice Brady, actress, who divorced James Lyons Crane, the baby's father (below) last January.

Eastbound, it left Los Angeles at 6:55 a. m. and arrived in Phoenix at 11:30 p. m. the same day. This direct run of 491.5 miles was made in 12 hours and twelve minutes actual running time, at an average speed of more than 40 miles an hour. On straightaways, speeds of 50 to 55 miles were maintained, and on one lengthy stretch an average of 64 miles was maintained.

The return trip was made by a longer route, notwithstanding steep grades and much time lost on sidings, the 577.7 miles was completed in 22 hours and 58 minutes. A mechanic and two railroad officials accompanied the Essex driver. One man drove the entire distance eastbound.

CREAM SEPARATORS NOVEL METHOD OF NASH COMPANY IN BIG PLANTS

The cream separator, heretofore confined to the placid routine of farm life has been adopted by the automobile industry and put to work amid the hum and roar of factory machinery. This is true at least in the big factories of The Nash Motors Company where thousands of dollars are saved each year in the motor test department by the reclamation of oil through cream separators.

Incidentally the Nash motor test is a shining illustration of manufacturing efficiency. This is of interest to the ultimate car buyer for the reason that precise methods of manufacture and elimination of waste are what make possible a low list price.

Oil for reclamation is placed in a large reservoir; from there it is piped into two 150 gallon tanks which stand on a platform just above a special centrifugal cream separator. In the overhead tanks the oil is heated by steam to a proper temperature after which it is allowed to settle for a period of eight hours. The fluid is then run through the cream separator, the centrifugal action of which removes practically all remaining foreign matter.

Light ends, water and other foreign substance, by means of this process, are practically eliminated from the lubricant with the result that the reclaimed oil is very high in quality.

The reclamation of oil is but one phase of the picture of manufacturing efficiency presented by the Nash motor test department. In this department one motor "breaks-in" another, city illuminating gas, in place of gasoline, being used as fuel. The old-time dynamometer method was too slow and not sufficiently efficient for the Nash factory. Now in the test department one sees two parallel rows of motors, thirty-five in a row.

In starting the test the "live" motor is kept in reverse and its brother engine in low speed is limbered up a bit; then the "green" motor is put in "high." After it has become thoroughly limber, the "green" motor on its own power is made to hum and whirl under the watchful eye and trained ear of an inspector who meanwhile is scrutinizing and "listening in" on a number of meters in that section of the line allotted to him.

During the test should the "green" motor show by the slightest indication that something is amiss the inspector immediately throws out the clutch and examination is made. When the test has been completed the motors are sent into the "silent room." There they are run with gasoline as fuel, so that before being sent to the chassis assembly department there may be no possibility of anything wrong.

Just to make doubly sure that the motor is one hundred per cent perfect after being assembled in the completed car it is given a rigid road test on the company's testing track. This means a positive check on the motor so that its operation in conjunction with all moving parts of the finished product may be observed. If it performs to the entire satisfaction of the expert mechanic at the wheel it is tagged for shipment.

Program Is Of Unusual Merit

A good sized crowd attended the musicale at the high school last evening. The program was varied and interesting and was thoroughly enjoyed by the audience.

The song series "In a Persian Garden," Liza Lehmann, by the quartet, Mesdames Graham and Scheffer and Messrs. Halverson and Humphreys was of especial interest. Mrs. E. D. Rose accompanied this cycle. All of the high school numbers are deserving of praise and after the concert last night, everyone felt the numbers were worthy of entrance in the District contest.

Following is the program given last evening:

1. Violin solo: "Angels Serenade", Broga. "Maritan", Rissalida—Cyril Grace.
2. "Butterfly", Greig, "Waltz in E Minor", Chopin—Lena Mandigo.
3. Vocal Solo: "Memory", Edna Parks—Ethel Pollard.
4. Piano Solo: "Rustle of Spring", Syding, "Prelude in C Sharp Minor", Rachmaninoff—Ruth Staley.
5. Reading: "The Fiddle Told," Nora C. Franklin—Arl Anderson.
6. Vocal solo: "Toreador" Song from Carmen—Bisel, Rex Berndt.
7. Piano Solo: "Valse Chromatique", Godard—Esther Larson.
8. Song Series: "In a Persian Garden," Liza Lehmann—Mesdames Graham and Scheffer, Messrs. Halverson and Humphreys, Mrs. Ruth Rose accompanist.

The words to this cycle of operatic group are taken from Tahaiyat of Omar Khayyam. The philosophy and life of this period offer the composer great opportunity for rhythm and expression.

At 4 o'clock on Friday afternoon the undernourished children of the city are asked to meet with Miss Spencer in the rest room. Miss Spencer will address both of these meetings on Friday on "Food Values."

Of Interest To Pioneer Residents

Of interest to many Bismarck people is the following item taken from a Washington, D. C. paper:

"On Tuesday afternoon music lovers had a treat, for, in addition to the Rachmaninoff concert, there was Mrs. Fred Dennett's reception at the Congressional Club, which was the pleasant excuse for a singularly delightful musicale. Mrs. Dennett's handsome daughter, who was joint hostess with her, is a musician who is both talented and cultivated and she had gathered about her a little group of artists who gave a truly thrilling recital.

"Moreover, at the piano Miss Dennett presented a lovely picture and so did Miss Katherine Riggs at the harp, her several solos being particularly appealing. Mrs. Campanole, wife of Major Campanole, is also a pretty thing, young and engaging and blessed with a charming voice. Her accomplishments were played by Dr. Liszonski, of the Polish legation. The only other man on the program was J. M. Curtin, whose group of songs was given with distinction."

Mrs. Fred Dennett was formerly Miss L. E. Comerford, chief clerk of the state insurance department here. In territorial days she was assistant deputy state auditor and going into statehood of North Dakota was chief clerk of the state insurance department under Governor Melette. Governor Miller and Governor Burke. Miss Comerford married Fred Dennett of the North Dakota state legislature who was afterward Commissioner of United States Land office at Washington, D. C.

Assisting Mrs. Dennett were her daughter, Miss Dorothy Dennett, and the wives of all the North Dakota delegation in congress and other Dakotans in Washington.

Cambridge, Mass.

Gentlemen:

Once in a while a blouse is returned to us as unsatisfactory. We are sure of the material we use in making our blouses and we are sure of our workman- blouse gets after it is in the hands of the owner. If women would wash their blouses with Lux, 90 per cent of our complaints would disappear. Frayed, pulled threads do not always mean a poor quality of silk, but a blouse that has been rubbed to get it clean. The thick Lux lather makes rubbing unnecessary. The other day a crêpe de Chine blouse was returned to us which had "gone" under the arm. The owner had put away the blouse which was badly soiled with perspiration. The perspiration acids had eaten the silk, and a harsh soap and rubbing completed the destruction. If that blouse had been washed with Lux as soon as it was soiled, we would not have had the complaint. For our own protection, we recommend the use of Lux in washing silks.

Very truly yours,

For Sale -- ELM GROVE -- For Sale

"Oh Time! Oh Time! Turn back in your flight and make me young again, and make me a child just for tonight." I consider that a wonderful expression.

Now, I was going to say the poet who originated this expression certainly had youthful thoughts in his mind. One thing I was going to suggest about keeping young was this, get out in the open air, walk and talk with your friends and in the summer time have a nice picnic ground, so to speak, where you can get together.

Now then no doubt, you are aware of the fact that my business is mostly salesmanship and suggesting to you that you ought to buy. I will now suggest that you and your many friends buy Beautiful Elm Grove. My Goodness, it is a beautiful piece of property. There it stands on the banks of the majestic Missouri River, surrounded by nice trees, beautiful grounds and it has quite a large building, part of which has a nice floor for dancing; another part partitioned off where women and children may use as a rest room. It seems that nature has surrounded Beautiful Elm Grove with wonderful environment's, steamboats and other boats going up and down the River, which has natural anchorage and landing.

Now then, the buildings erected on these grounds cost approximately $1,800.00. I am now offering the entire grounds, including all buildings for only $1,600.00, one-half cash, balance to suit.

P. S. Now Dear Prospect or Buyer, I wish to inform you that we have numerous fraternal orders in the City of Bismarck, such as the Masons, K. C. Odd Fellows, W. C. T. U., Homesteaders, M. B. C. EXIT: THE "BLUES"
Have you noticed that in vaudeville and burlesque they aren't wailing those "blues" songs as much as a few months ago?
And when you and the wife go out for the evening, if some pests starts up the phonograph the "blues" records aren't as much in evidence? If brought out, apt to be dusty?
The "blues" are passing out because a psychological wave of optimism is pulsating through the country.
When the nation was down at the mouth and keeping itself plugging along only by a grim sense of humor, the national anthem had verses like these:

Aches to aches, dust to dust,
If whiskey don't get you, the raisinjack must.
I'm go'n to put my head on a railroad line,
Let a B. & O. train pacify my min'.
O I've got the weary blues.....
An' I'm feelin' sad.

A market letter comments that lately no furor is created in the stock market by any news story indicating that there'll be a soldier bonus.
When the market was down low, mere mention of a bonus bill, with its financial problems, gave the market acute indigestion.
The difference is all in the mental state of the American people. As the market letter put it, "Optimism is the great force underneath the market and it is the most powerful force known in business."

Business went to pot when every one lost courage, began looking solemn and speaking in funeral tones.
Whether pessimism produced hard times, or hard times generated pessimism, doesn't make much difference.
The important point is that optimism and prosperity travel together, and that the country is getting optimistic.
Fundamentally, we haven't been critically ill—at least, not compared with the hard times of 1873. It was largely a case of financial stomach trouble. Dr. Fate put us to bed, to stay until we learned that bread, beans and round steak are more digestible over a long period than chocolate cake, lobster and candy.
Just like a patient with a sound body—can't keep him in bed after he gets restless.
Hard times come when we get pessimistic and underestimate our strength. That's a continuous human failing. It takes eight men to hold down a physical weakling when he goes crazy, yet his muscles haven't changed, nor his reserve energy.
The strength has been there all along, only he didn't know it.
National optimism will bring out the strength we have but are ignorant of. Start tomorrow whistling.

RUM AS CURRENCY
Moonshine liquor has become currency in parts of Texas. One community reports that 40 gallons of moonshine can be exchanged for a Ford car.
History repeats. In 1784, settlers of eastern Tennessee set up their own commonwealth, elected a legislature, called their domain the State of Franklin, and sought admission to the union. Records dealing with this old political movement mention that rum was legal tender in those days, one gallon buying a homespun shirt.
Many thirsty ones would trade their hole wardrobe for a gallon of rum today.

CORSETS
Ancient Greek women wore uncomfortable corsets made of boards strapped together.
Grace Ripley tells this to an eastern meeting of women during a fashion show.
Whereupon, the women comment about absurdities of old-time styles.
Talk was interrupted by Mrs. Carolyn Kahari, wearing a priceless gown "of 1000 fires," made of half a million tiny mirrors embroidered on gold cloth. She bought it from an exiled Russian aristocrat.
Nature might have saved us a lot of money by covering us with feathers like the birds.

TROWEL
Watch the next bricklayer you see, especially his trowel. It is one of the very few implements of man that has remained unchanged since its invention.
The trowel of today is the same as was used by the masons who built the Egyptian pyramids some 4000 years ago.
An Indianapolis man now is marketing a new kind of trowel, which he claims will lay two to three times as many bricks as the old form.

There is nothing, no matter how long established, that cannot be improved. Wealth awaits the improver. Find a better way or a better device and your bank account will grow.
In experimenting, stick to the most widely used necessities.
PROFITS
Most of us imagine that our financial troubles would vanish if we could only get into business for ourselves. Hence the old saying, "Better own a peanut stand than work for some one else."
Yet an analysis of income tax returns shows that even in 1919, the boom year, 110,564 corporations had no net income. They either lost money or barely broke even.

GERMAN INDEMNITY
Germany checks up and reports that, to the beginning of 1922, it paid the equivalent of about $1,600,000,000 indemnity to the allies in cash, goods and cessions of state property.
Our Congress is spending that much in less than six months.
Whenever the Germans get discouraged, they might come over to America and find out what a real financial problem is.

CONVICTS' PAY
A bill to raise convicts' pay has been passed by the Assembly of New York state.
If you are interested in contrasts brought by the changes of time, get out a history and read about old-time prisons, confinement in which was recognized as a living death.
If anyone had proposed paying wages to convicts in olden times, he would have been locked up with the lunatics.

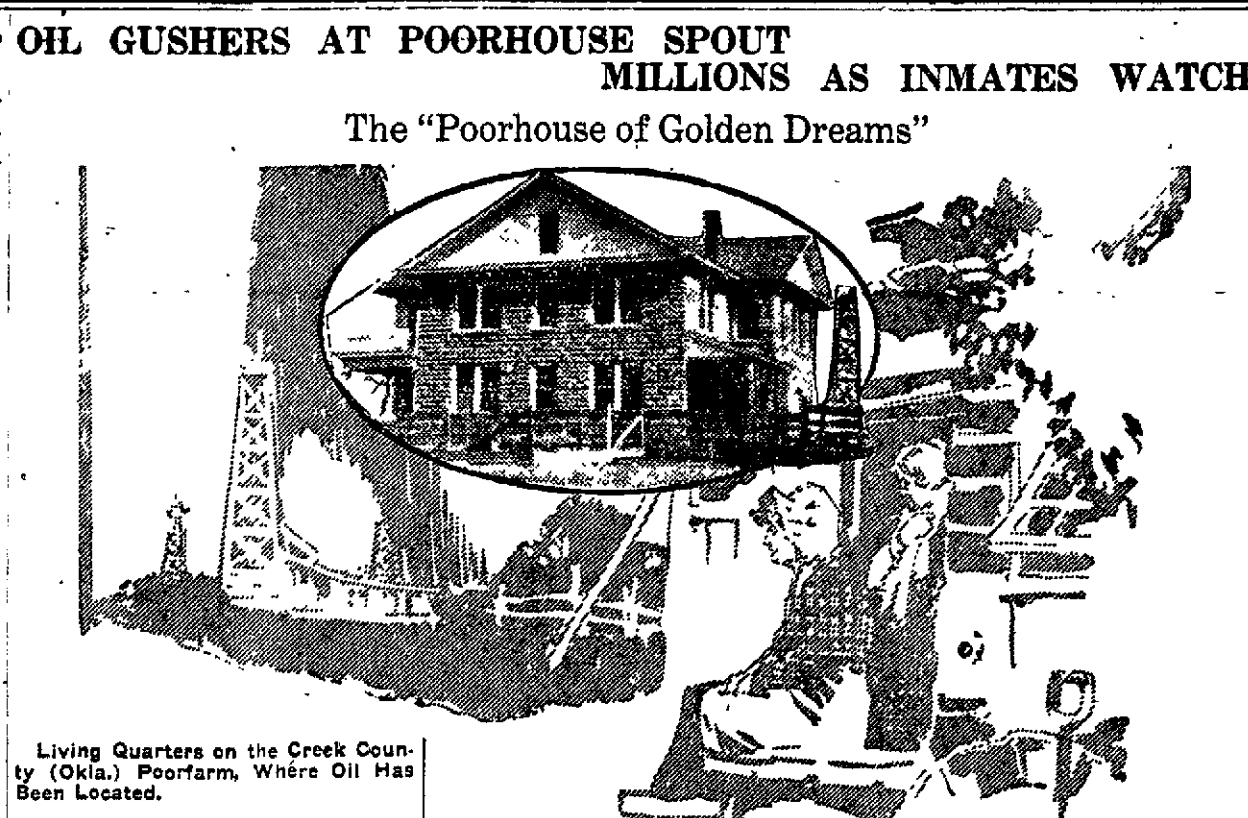

TWO CENTS
Only really interesting thing about the income tax is the report, from nearly every community, of some one who paid a tax of one or two cents.
A taxpayer who whittles a thing that closely is certainly living up to his obligations to the government.
When the spending branch of government begins paying as much attention to the mighty penny, government will be living up to its obligations to the people.

COST OF BUTTONS
Do you realize how intricate is this labyrinth called civilization? Buttons, for instance. Americans spend $100,000,000 a year on buttons.
It is a fabulous sum. Yet it goes to something you rarely give even a passing thought.
Thousands of other commonly used devices are taken as a matter of course, though each has back of it an industry involving sales high up in the millions.
Who invented the button? She was too useful to be remembered.

FORESIGHT
Fifty years ago, New York produced from its forests more lumber than any other state. Now it produces only a tenth of the country's supply.
This is partly due to the nation's tremendous increase in use of lumber. The greater reason is the wanton destruction of eastern forests without replacing them.
States that are planting trees on a big scale are preparing much wealth for their future residents. The more any state conserves its natural resources and develops its power, the more attractive it will be in the next generation, also the greater the prosperity of its inhabitants.

Comments reproduced in this column may or may not express the opinion of The Tribune. They are presented here in order that our readers may have both sides of important issues which are being discussed in the press of the day.

COMMERCIAL VALUE OF HARD HITTING
Sing a song of baseball,
A pocket full of buns;
Nothing draws the dollars
Like Ruth's Home—Runs!
Judge Landis gets $50,000 a year for guiding professional baseball along the paths of integrity. Babe Ruth, the dispatches say, is to get $75,000 a year for filling the grandstand and the bleachers with enthusiastic lovers of sports because of his extraordinary proficiency in batting the ball over the fence.
Thus the American public pays one of its favorites in the national sport. The public pays the freight although it does not write the checks. We are in a high-salary era for all public entertainers. We must be amused, even as the ancient Roman populace was amused, but substitute games and plays for gladiatorial exhibitions.
John McGraw gets some $60,000 for managing the Giants; Ban Johnson draws $25,000 as president of the American League. Ty Cobb receives an equal amount for piloting the Detroit Tigers. Christy Mathewson, in his palmy days, never exceeded $10,000 a year. Movie stars and movie counsellors alone eclipse baseball princes. They get, from $150,000 for Will Hays, to half a million or more for people like Mary Pickford, Charley Chaplin and Doug Fairbanks.
The public pays gladly. It must be amused, is willing to pay for its entertainment, and joyously enriches those whose talents put them at the top of their professions. Money values for sport, even prize fighting, have increased constantly during the past decade.—Chicago Journal of Commerce.

OIL GUSHERS AT POORHOUSE SPOUT MILLIONS AS INMATES WATCH
The "Poorhouse of Golden Dreams"
Living Quarters on the Creek County (Okla.) Poorfarm, Where Oil Has Been Located.
By NEA Service
Bristow, Okla., March 21—In the midst of poverty, of despair, of wrecked hopes, of ruined lives, of broken old age—
Millions of dollars are spouting out of the earth here!
For oil has been struck on the Creek county poorfarm. Two gushers are bringing out from 2000 to 3000 barrels of liquid wealth daily.
The cash value of the farm at sale has leaped to $1,000,000 and Creek county commissioners believe oil royalties will net them $2,000,000 in the next 10 years.
All that means little to the inmates of the poorfarm—old people with no one to care for them or younger folks whose physical or mental defects have put them out of the running in life's race.
They sit in a shabby line on the farmhouse porch and watch the earth give up its riches. That's their only pastime.
One aged inmate jokes about it. "We oughta be wearin' diamonds and fine raiment and livin' off the fat of the land pretty soon," he says, and laughs.
The county bought this 180-acre poor farm a few years ago at $50 an acre. Many thought that price was too high.
Albert Kelley, oil operator, was the seller. He retained oil and gas privileges to the tract.
An oil company started drilling on the poorfarm. It drilled 2500 feet, found nothing and abandoned drilling.
K. Kelley decided to deepen the hole. At 3100 feet he found gusher sand! Later another gusher burst forth!
Now two derricks have been erected on the farm. Geologists say the 20 acres occupied by the house and outbuildings, orchard and gardens all will produce oil. Twenty wells will be sunk, they say.
During the first 30 days one gusher produced 80,000 gallons of oil. The county receives $2 a barrel royalty.
County commissioners are figuring they can run the county without collecting taxes as long as the poorfarm continues to produce.
Taxpayers are jubilant.
"So is Kelley,"
But the 15 poor-farm charges just sit on the porch—and watch the riches roll out—and think what they'd do if they had it.

ADVENTURE OF THE TWINS
By Olive Barton Roberts
Kip helped Nancy and Nick to find the path again on Electric Mountain, and then he left them. "I'd like to stay with you," he said, "but I can't. You see Princess Thelma in her castle of Mirrors, sees everything. She can see all the trouble you are having, although she cannot help you. Besides, you must make the journey alone. She is likely looking at me with you now, but that's all right. I'm only talking to you. Goodbye now."

"Goodbye," said the twins. "We've ever so much to do. We won't hunt for any more brooks."
"That's right," said Kip, "and take the advice of your red father. If you had closed your eyes when he wrote his last message, you'd have been better off."
Kip stamped on the ground three times and disappeared.
This time the twins kept to the path and soon reached the bottom of the mountain.
"My!" yawned Nancy. "I'm glad that's over. Now we can take our galoshes off. There's no electricity here and my feet are getting tired. I wonder what the Ederdown Mountain is like."
"It sounds like a good place to spend the night," said Nick. "I'm getting dreadfully hungry too. I wish we'd asked Kip where to find—Why, hello, what's his?"
Right before them on the ground appeared a little basket with a nice white napkin over the top.
"It looks like our supper," said Nancy peeping in. "Yes, it's sandwiches and a bottle of milk and fruit too. Isn't it lovely?"
The red father jumped out of Nick's pocket at that and began to write on the magic paper again.
"Oh, shucks!" declared Nick. "More trouble, I suppose. I almost wish the old father had stayed at home. It's always telling us not to do things."
But this time the pen wrote: "The Magical Mushroom! Eat this basket. Eat out of it all that you wish. Whenever you are hungry, it will appear with more food."
"Dear old Mushroom!" said Nancy. Nick, the head, father is our best friend!"

MANDAN NEWS
Herbert Peterson Dies in Wyoming
Herbert J. Peterson, 40, brother of Arthur H. and Earle W. Peterson of Mandan, died early yesterday morning at his home at Casper, Wyo., following a short illness with pneumonia. Information that he was ill was received Monday night but his condition was not considered serious and the news of his death came as a distinct shock.
Deceased was prominent in the building of the city of Casper. He launched a weekly newspaper there some years ago which was later made a daily and which he edited for some time. However, he disposed of the paper and devoted his entire time to real estate. He plotted and developed two or three additions to Casper and was at the forefront in development of the district. He was a majority stockholder in a large motor concern and the state agency for several standard cars. This is managed by a brother, Clarence Peterson.
Mr. Peterson was very well known in Mandan having visited here at various times, and shortly before Christmas having spent a week here with his brothers.
The body probably will be taken to the old home at Estherville, Ia., for burial. He leaves a wife, a small son and daughter, four brothers and a sister.

Fire Causes Loss in Milling Plant
Fire of unknown origin yesterday afternoon caused a heavy loss, yet unestimated, at the big elevator of the Russell Miller Milling company plant here. The millers' company officials have not had opportunity to make a thorough inspection, but it is believed that at least 15,000 of the 60,000 bushels of wheat stored in the elevator was ruined or affected by the smoke and water.
The fire was in the roof of the elevator and it itself caused but small damage to the property.
Members of the city fire department dragged a line of hose up the stairs of the elevator to what would

Today's word is HIEROGLYPHIC.
It's pronounced—hye-ro-gliff-ick with accent on the third syllable.

It's used like this—"Most bank signatures look like hieroglyphics."

New Car Foreman Comes to Marmarth
Marmarth, N. D., March 22.—A change in the personnel of car foremen by which Merl Comstock goes to Miles City as Asst. Mr. Comstock has been a resident of Marmarth for the past fourteen years and naturally feels considerable reluctance in moving from the city.
Mr. and Mrs. Rognelson are both well-known in our city, having lived here for a number of years before going to Miles City, and their many friends will be pleased to welcome them back.

Incompetency Case Tried This Week
Devils Lake, N. D., March 22.—Some time this week the contest commenced by Thos. J. Lamb to have the will of his mother Julia Lamb set aside on account of undue influence and incompetency, will be tried. It is claimed that over $500,000 is involved in this contest and it will be fought bitterly on both sides.
J. P. Lamb, who was the head of the business activities of the Lamb brothers died last summer without a will and that makes Thomas J. Lamb one of his heirs. His share in J. P. Lamb's estate amounts to about $600,000. R. Goer and W. M. Anderson of Devils Lake, are Thomas J. Lamb's attorneys and the other heirs are represented by Frick, E. T. Cuthbert and Tracy Bangs. Unless settlement is arrived at it will take about ten days time to try the case.

The opening which varied from 1-3 cent decline to 3-5 cents gain was followed by a general upturn and then setbacks to well below yesterday's finish. Valley City Boy Is Star Athlete

Valley City, N. D., March 22.-James L. Combs, of Valley City, N. D., has developed into a star athlete this year at Culver Military Academy, at which place he is a cadet, and after making his debut in football last fall, has now come forward in spring sports and has landed a regular place on the varsity track team.

Combs' fleetness made him one of the star-dancers that have been on a Culver eleven in several years, and the same speed is what makes him a valuable man in the hurdles. He is also a good jumper. He was active in athletics in the Culver summer school, which he attended last summer.

The Valley City boy is a first class man and graduate, from Culver in June. He is preparing to enter one of the eastern universities.

TO PLANT POTATOES

Minot, N. D., March 22.-About 2460 acres of prospective potato planting for the coming season in the Minot district was reported at the farmers' meeting here Saturday.

Resolutions were adopted favoring farmers' planting such acreages as they can properly handle and the using of the best kind of seed. Other resolutions provided that the temporary committee or organization be made permanent and go ahead and conduct an organization under the state cooperative statute and arrange for a site for the proposed potato warehouse in Minot.

HETTINGER FURNISHING SEED

Volt, N. D., March 22.-Hettinger county is furnishing a stipulated amount of seed to farmers, giving applicants until April 15, 1922 in which to register. The total per applicant includes 15 bushels oats, three bushels millet, two bushels corn, and four bushels potatoes. These desiring more will have to pay cash.

Farmers of Hettinger township, agreeing to work out the amounts allotted on roads, were given credit on the township treasurer for 2 1/2 each. Officials found the township has about $1,000 in the road fund.

USE COMMON SENSE IN DIET AS BODY NEEDS VARIETY OF FOOD

Young and Old Need Plenty of Vegetables in Diet.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Too much attention has been paid in the past to the "don'ts" of cookery and the diet. This, that, or the other food has been considered unwholesome. People were told that they ate too much meat, or too many fried foods or sweets, or that white bread was necessarily unwholesome, but nowadays it is known that none of the common food materials properly used is in itself harmful for the normal person. The only exceptions are the extremely small number of people said by physicians to have "idiosyncrasies," who must be particularly careful about their food. What we need is not so many "don'ts" but a few more "do's." Here are some good rules for the diet, say food specialists in the office of home economics:

Sources of Vitamins A.

Use daily some milk, butter, and greenleaf vegetables, either raw or cooked only enough to make them taste good. These food materials all contain a substance called vitamin A, believed to be necessary for normal growth in children and also for the continued bodily well-being of adults.

Introduce variety into the cereal foods used by eating occasionally brown bread, baked or steamed; granular muffins, cracked whole wheat, or

CAREFULLY PLANNED CLEANING IS URGED

Long Been Regarded as Bugbear in Many Households.

No Need for Upheavals That Result in Discomfort to Everybody if Few Precautionary Rules Are Observed.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Housecleaning need not be the bugbear it has long been regarded in many households. If the work is carefully planned, if the kind of furnishings that are easy to keep clean are chosen and handled in the right way, and if provision is made for keeping all the dirt possible out of the house, there will be no need for the upheavals that result in discomfort to the entire household. The following are good rules by which to organize the housecleaning:

Keep dirt out of the house by cleaning the walks, steps, porches, and sills regularly and often, by screening windows and doors near the ground, and by insisting on having muddy shoes and coats cleaned, or left outside.

Lessen the number of dust-collecting places, such as unnecessary cupboards, grooved and carved woodwork, floors with cracks, rough-finished walls, elaborately carved and upholstered furniture, superfluous draperies, and bric-a-brac.

Remove dirt frequently systematically. This keeps the house and furnishings in better condition, and makes the need of heavy cleaning less frequent.

Clean by taking the dirt away, not by scattering it, to settle again elsewhere.

Do heavy cleaning a little at a time to avoid the hard work and discomfort of the old-fashioned spring and fall housecleaning.

Have a supply of good cleaning tools such as your work calls for, and keep them in good order in a convenient place.

Use water and cleaning agents sparingly because otherwise they may spoil finishes and weaken glue, paste, or cement.

Watch for troublesome insects and animals, and take prompt measures to get rid of them if they appear.

Make all the family help by leaving things where they belong, and in good condition.

These rules are given by the United States Department of Agriculture in a new Farmers' Bulletin, No. 1180, "Housecleaning Made Easier."

To-Remove Grease Spots.

Cover grease spots on wall paper with white blotting paper and hold a warm iron over them. Repeat this operation with a fresh piece of paper until all the grease is absorbed.

CAPE

Some of the smartest of homespun capes sport huge collars of fur. The collars are generally unlined so their warmth is not too great for spring days.

LONG TASSELS

Exceedingly long tassels of silk are the sole trimming of some of the smart new hats. The fringes of these tassels are in some instances a foot long.

CROP REPORTER IS APPOINTED

J. G. Diamond Will Take Surratt's Place in North Dakota

CHARGE AGAINST RICHTER IS POSTPONED

Ellendale, N. D., March 22.—The case brought against W. J. Richter, charged with embezzlement of $750.86 from the Farmers State Bank of Forbes, N. D., has been dismissed. The dismissal came after the state had produced its evidence. The court held that the state had not shown that Mr. Richter was not entitled to a check to himself for $750.86 which he drew as expense for an automobile covering a period of three years. Mr. Richter sold out his interest in the bank January 1, 1920. The check was drawn Dec. 30, 1919.

The pamphlets will consist of about 32 pages of descriptive and illustrated matter. It is planned to sell to individuals and business institutions about half the number at a price of each, which will be about six cents each. The remainder of the 15,000 pamphlets will then be sent to other states for distribution.

13 PRISONERS IN JAIL

The county jail has now more prisoners than it has had for sometime. There are nine federal prisoners, two city and two county prisoners, thirteen in all.

MISSING SEVERAL MONTHS

Minot, N. D., March 22.—Justice C. B. Davis has received a letter from Mrs. John E. Tinjin, from Helena, Mont., asking for information regarding her husband who was heard of from Minot, October, 1920. She then sent her $75 and said he had about two weeks work left in the harvest fields where he was employed. Tinjin came from Coffee Creek, Minn. His three children are now in the Odd Fellows home in Helena, and his wife is living in that city.

SUBSCRIPTIONS, NEW MEMBERS

Minot, N. D., March 22.—The dedication of the new First Congregational church here Sunday was signalized by two important features. During the day a total of $1,300 additional funds for the payment of the debt on the new building was pledged, leaving only $1,700 unpledged, and not counting the $10,000 loan to the Congregational Home Building society. At the morning service 18 new members were received into the church, all of them being adults.

AT THE THEATERS

CAPITOL

"The Call of Home," L. J. Gasnier's spectacular production, running by R. C. Pictures, will open at the Capitol Theater today, where it will be shown for a period of two days. Unfolding a story of intense dramatic interest, "The Call of Home" provides its biggest thrill, however, through its big flood scenes, which exceed a regular feature picture in the grandeur of the scenes. A big shot down a river, a big battle on a water-filled and is situated on the rocks below. Wallace, misled by his life scene, is driven during the filming of the picture and his daring exploits make wonderful entertainment in the cast are such players as Irene Rich, Leon Barry, Walter C. Lewis, Johnny Harrison, Carl Stockdale, Sidney Franklin, Margaret Mann, Walden Harris, Emmett King and others.

ELIMAGE

Two really big names head the cast which was assembled to play the many colorful roles in "The Shiek," Paramount's new contribution to the theatre-going public, which will be shown at the Eltinge Theatre for three days beginning today.

These are Agnes Ayres and Rudolph Valentino. Miss Ayres, whose earliest claim to fame was as the "O. H. H. girl" in a series of pictures, and whose stories by that famous author have since been step by step, by dint of faithless work in such pictures as "The Sign of the Cross," "The Sign of the Cross," and many others, until she has now become one of Paramount's leading feminine stars.

Mr. Valentino gained widespread popularity by his portrayal of "Julius" in the "The Sign of the Cross" type on the screen for the picture "The Sign of the Cross," the Arabian desert tale. The support is given by George Mefford, producer of "The Shiek," struck a high note of realism in his production of the screen version of a famous novel.

Highly effective, it is said, are the scenes in the tent of the Shiek and in the desert stronghold of Omar, the bandit. A most realistic windstorm is one of the features of the tent episode, with the sand whipping across the waste and almost tearing the heavy canvas from its moorings. The love element is surely powerful. And a feature sure to prove irresistible to the faithful of the wilderness, the desert riders who come whipping across the deserts of the loose garments flaunting in the wind.

SCOUT NOTES

METHODIST TROOP TWO.

The contest between the patrols is progressing very nicely. The points of each patrol at the meeting of March 17 are as follows: Beaver patrol, 42; Owl patrol, 41; Bob White patrol, 25. The total points won by each patrol are: Owl, 81; Beaver, 76; and Bob White, 76. Each bird reported counts three points towards the patrols total. During the week of March 13 to 19, six birds were reported making our list, 16. They are:

Crow and Brown Creeper—Cadyville Bills.

Tree sparrow—John Anderson.

Slate colored Junco—John Dingle.

Scotchcreeper Horned lark—Arthur Nathan.

Many scouts went out to the cabin Saturday. They snaked up all the logs out of flood danger using a block and tackle. They had to use the boots to go out on the ice on the creek to rescue the logs. Many were floating. They are out of danger now. A truck driver for the Highway Commission drove the boys as far as the fort, they walked the rest of the way. They walked back to the fort and rode into town. Everyone worked hard and had a good time. We expect to start the cabin next Saturday. No more badgers have been taken this week or last. The merit badge meeting was postponed until next month.

BISMARCK TROOP NO THREE

We were pleased to have at our meeting in the parish house last evening a delegation from Troop No. One. This delegation came to outline their proposals for an inter-scout by-weekly paper in which interesting records of all the troops activities could be recorded. It was unanimously decided by the Episcopalists to join heart and soul to such a fine scheme, the only proviso being that all troops assume an equal burden of the finance and have equal rights and powers to elect all the officers including that of editor in chief. Three delegates were then chosen by the Episcopal troop to represent Troop No. 3 at the meeting to be held in the high school next Thursday evening.

The next item of interest was the camp for the coming summer. It is very likely that Troop Three will go farther abroad this year in search of a good camp where there would be better swimming facilities.

A splendid offer has been made by Bishop Tyler of a camping site near Cannon Ball, where there are so many natural camping advantages. Good swimming, fine fishing, and splendid opportunities for developing campcraft are offered. The question will be further discussed at the next meeting—in the meantime all the members of this troop are urged to save every nickel for the camp. Edgar Crewe and William Lehr were voted in last night and were duly inducted by a good hazing.

All the members are urged to take more tests and then more. No boy can be a really good scout unless he is making some progress on these tests. Some are doing fine, but others seem to forget that not to make progress means to go back—there is no such thing as standing still in a boy's life.

In closing this article we must not and do not forget the kindness of the Rotary club for the feed given last week also the splendid speeches made for our benefit. Thank you one and all.

TROOP 6.

Signals! No, we didn't play football at our last meeting, Friday, the 17th, but we had some fast signal work just the same. Bob Nuesse, and Walter LeRoy exchanged messages in semaphore with speed and accuracy, while the "wigwag" signaling was demonstrated with equal skill by Don Rohrer and Ole Benson. Many of the fellows are enthusiastic over signaling, and one should not be surprised in the future to see scouts perched up in tree-tops, signalling fellow scouts at some distant part of the city.

Archie McGray has passed the Scouts' Musicians' test, and will be awarded the Scouts' Musicians' Collar Ornament.

In spite of the cold spell, we believe that summer is coming, and we are talking "Track Meet." Here's hoping that other troops of the city feel as we do and that we can arrange to stage a fast meet later on.
